

HOME ECONOMICS

Miss Wanda Pink, of Burk's Falls, with an exhibit of record books, articles of sewing and awards which she has accumulated while achieving her Provincial Honours for her 4-H Girls' Homemaking projects. Wanda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pink.

Harmony — A member presented a study on the Arctic, using maps and pictures.

Bervie — "Education for Leisure Time" was the subject of a discussion, and a display of hobbies by one member was a part of a program.

Teeswater — The local Home Economist discussed new fabrics and their care at a Branch meeting.

Melancthon — Roll Call: "What to do and what not to do as a guest."

Good Luck — "A Taste of Opera" was the subject of a Branch meeting program. The record "The Barber of Seville" was played and an explanation of the story was given.

Keward — A speaker told of methods used in the mining of Asbestos and explained the uses of different kinds of Asbestos.

Bothwell's Corners — Members watched Madame Vanier being interviewed by Adrienne Clarkson on the television program "Take Thirty."

St. Vincent — An officer of the Ontario Provincial Police spoke on "Traffic Violations."

Woodford — The members invited a few patients from the nearby Ontario Hospital to their meeting and provided entertainment.

Victoria II — Members participated in a debate on "Mercy Killing."

The Women's Institute of South Tarentorous (Algoma District) completed a Centennial project when a monument was dedicated on the site of the old Wawanash School for Indian girls.

Slate River — Roll Call: "My idea of what the 4-H Homemaking Clubs accomplish." An article was read on the beginning of the Clubs and assistant leader of one of the Clubs who had herself completed twelve projects, explained her work with the Clubs.

Kettleby — For one of their fall meetings the members visited a nearby hobby barn. Here the owner showed dyes made from local sources which she used in dyeing wool, refinished early Canadian furniture and the making of a pot on a potter's wheel.

Purple Grove — A panel discussion, "Television Detrimental to Family Life Today" was the program for a meeting.

Glasgow Station — A program took the form of a discussion of old-time recipes. A member brought samples of soup made from an old recipe and gave out the directions that she had used in making the soups.

Wingham — A speaker chose the topic "Are We Emotionally Mature?" She said, "The emotionally mature person must be individual in her own right and decide her own course of life. She must be honest with herself and not waste time being jealous or blaming others. Her angry feelings may be eased by doing something useful or even buying a new hat."

Allardice — A demonstration on the use of make-up and wigs was enjoyed by this Branch. The members served as models.

Kingsmill Mapleton — Roll Call: "What does happiness mean to you?" A speaker said "The great essentials of life are something to do, something to love and something to hope for."

Villa Nova — Motto: "Many folks are confusing the high cost of living with the cost of high living."

Havelock — Using colorful tiles, a speaker demonstrated the making of decorative and useful articles such as small table tops, ashtrays, and toaster stands.

Severn Bridge — Motto: "One third of the food you eat keeps you alive; the other two thirds keeps your doctor alive."

Iron Bridge — A speaker told the members of this Branch of the proper care and the growing of roses and dahlias.

Massey — "Something new in textiles" was the subject of a paper presented at a Branch meeting.

Sowerby — Members participated in a debate using the subject "Resolved that women should not hold jobs away from home."

Echo Bay Evening — A speaker explained the Science of Hair and Skin Care.

Glenmorris — A member demonstrated the stitchery of petit point and needlepoint embroidery.