

Holyrood — A member demonstrated how to pack a suitcase to have the clothes come out wrinkle free. Good ideas for purchasing articles suitable for packing were also presented.

Barrie Island — "The Care of The Eyes" and "The Eye Bank" was explained by a speaker at a meeting of this branch. The speaker said, "To donate your eyes you must obtain a pledge card from the C.N.I.B. Make sure to inform your family, your doctor and your clergyman to make sure that your wishes are carried out."

Harrietsville — A member of the local O.P.P. visited a branch meeting and using slides explained the Rules for Safety on the Highways especially as they pertain to farm equipment. He said, "No child under sixteen years of age is lawfully allowed to drive a tractor on the road at any time."

Ed. note — This was checked with the Department of Highways in Ontario and the law reads: "No person under the age of sixteen years may operate a motor vehicle or farm tractor on a highway."

Bruce Centre District Women's Institutes — sponsored a Craft and Hobby Show at Port Elgin, Ontario and had an attendance of over nine hundred. There was a collection of one hundred and thirty quilts and twenty five bedspreads. There were demonstrations of pottery making, floral arrangements, copper enamelling, etc.

Sebringville — "Textiles" was the program subject at the meeting arranged by the Home Economics and Health convener. The speaker explained the difference between natural textiles such as cotton, wool, silk, alpaca and man-made synthetics, rayon, nylon, orlon, polyester and fortrel.

Grace Patterson — A supervisor of an Adult Rehabilitation Centre Industries Workshop explained the work done in this Workshop which employs handicapped adults.

Purple Valley — "The Canning and Processing Industry" was the subject of a program arranged for a branch meeting.

Silverwood — "The plan of one man and one boy was a rewarding experience for the members of The Big Brother Association" said a guest at a branch meeting.

Wellman's — The program featured a panel discussion using the theme, "Today's Wonders". Whole milk, cheese, meat, drugs, taxes and clothes were some of the subjects discussed.

Delta — "New Horizons for Leisure Time" was the theme for a program. The speaker said, "We are never too old to learn how to use our spare time."

Kingsville — Sponsored a Baby Sitting Safety Course. They had fifty four registrations, fifty wrote exams and forty five received certificates. To receive a certificate the student had to attend all lectures and have 65 per cent on the exam.

Seaforth — Roll Call — "What winter projects have you planned for yourself?"

Maple Leaf — Roll Call — "An experience with misleading advertising."

Kipling — A paper on additives in foods on the market today stirred up discussion and controversy at a branch meeting.

Riverside — "L.S.D., Speed, Hashish, Marijuana." Parents are you familiar with these words? Do you have communication with your children with regard to drugs that are so talked about currently and used today? With these questions local Medical Health Officer opened a talk on Drugs at a meeting of this branch.

Hayley — Roll Call — "What's My Beef on New Products?"

Gravelridge — Roll Call — "Hints on Good Shopping".

Irwin's — A guest speaker from the Canadian Mental Health Association explained the work of a White Cross Centre. The speaker said that the role of the Centre was to help with the rehabilitation program and the volunteers who were not professionals were needed to assist.

Kleinburg-Nashville — A local chiropractor gave an illustrated talk on the bone structure of the body and how to prevent damage by poor posture.

Braeside — A demonstration on providing a meal featuring fruit and cheese provided an interesting program.

Jasper — Much interest was shown at a meeting featuring a discussion on Family Life Today.

Williscroft — "The Value of the Home Library" was pointed out by a speaker at a meeting of this branch.

Laura Rose — "The use of drugs precedes the abuse of drugs, but the use of mind expanding drugs was often the symptom of a deeper problem," a speaker said at a branch meeting.

Canfield — A talk on Fire Insurance gave the women attending a meeting of this branch some thought provoking ideas.

Diltz and Robinson — "The kinds of Silverware and its care" was the subject of a talk and discussion at a branch meeting.

Nelles Corners — A review of the book "Black Like Me" was an interesting program feature.