

Members of Clinton Branch of the Women's Institute with Miss Catherine Hunt, Huron County Home Economist (standing right). Back row, from left—Mrs. F. Cummings, Mrs. W. Perry, Mrs. C. Larkhart, Mrs. M. Gibson, Mrs. Wettington, Mrs. C. Elliot, Mrs. A. Graves, Mrs. B. Gibbings, Mrs. C. Nelson. Front row, from left—Mrs. M. B. Bathkin, Mrs. C. Holland, Mrs. W. Colclough, Mrs. H. Murtch.

Gambridge — Roll Call — “Something new in food.”

Bellfountain-Rockside — Stressing safety the convener of the standing committee pointed out the importance of knowing how to escape from the home in the event of fire.

Iroquois — An officer of the accident Division Branch of the Ontario Provincial Police presented an address illustrated by slides at a branch meeting. The officer told that the O.P.P. are responsible for patrolling 416,000 miles of Ontario highways, travelling over 60 million miles in one year.

Gleneden — A guest speaker described suitable flowers and shrubbery for the farm home, and gave hints on the care of flower beds, at a branch meeting.

South Smith — A public health nurse, speaking at a branch meeting explained that one of her main duties was to prevent disease and promote good health.

Sowerby — “Food Dollars” was the subject of an address at a branch meeting. The speaker stressed the need for more communication between the producer and the consumer.

Hornby — A demonstration of home weaving and the story of this craft was presented at a branch meeting.

Clute — Women's Institute members sent a letter to the Department of Lands and Forests re old forgotten wells on the farms in their area. The Department replied asking for further information.

Seymour East — Roll Call — A display of your oldest piece of needlecraft.

Royal — The branch has made plans to sponsor a baby sitting course.

Seaforth — A physiotherapist speaking on the topic “What can a physiotherapist do?” said “A physiotherapist can assist in the treatment for conditions such as cerebral palsy, stroke, arthritis and thalidomide children.”

Kent Centre — “Today's Consumer — Careful or Careless” was the subject of an address at a branch meeting. The speaker also explained the origin of the Canadian Association of Consumers.

Cold Springs — “Leisure Time For What?” was the thought provoking subject of an address at a branch meeting.

Atwood — Motto — “Character is the result of two things, mental attitudes and habits formed in the home.”

Campbell's Corners — “The Care and Use of The Attachments of Your Sewing Machine” was the subject of a talk which was of much interest at a branch meeting.

Port Emsley — Roll Call — “What to do or what not to do for a guest.”

Renton — Motto — “A lot of good could be done in the world if no one cared who got the credit for it.”

Marburg — A social worker addressed a branch meeting using the subject, “Is retirement good or bad for the health?”