

At the Sixtieth Anniversary. Front from left — Life Members of the Crossland Women's Institute: Mrs. Norman Barnes, Mrs. Jas. Locke, and Mrs. Preston Doan. Back from left — Executive Members: Mrs. George Archer, Mrs. Harry Train, Mrs. Don Robertson, Mrs. John Knuff and Mrs. John Loughheed.

New Hamburg — Roll Call — "Travel tips for today's traveller."

Gamebridge — Using the topic Citizenship a panel discussion was a meeting feature. Three headings were used: Religion, Education and Travel.

Kirkwall Valens — A tape recording was made of a Branch meeting. The recording will be sent to a Women's Institute Branch in England with whom the Ontario Branch has corresponded for years. The Motto was, "No rose can prosper until it learns that there is as much dignity in tilling a field as in writing a poem."

Executive members Mrs. Fred Cliff, Mrs. Walter Gibson, Mrs. Kenneth Garrett, and Mrs. Charles Thompson when Inverary Women's Institute Branch celebrated its 60th anniversary.

Mellquham's — In a talk on Education a speaker said that "Education is to enable a man to continue his learning." She then explained the various ways in which the school curriculum has been transformed so that a child may be able to adjust to all changes and strongly advised parents not to resist such a transformation.

Kenmore — Branch members and guests heard an employee of the Federal Government explain what is now being done to rehabilitate prisoners.

Coronation — Using the theme, "Continuing Education" a speaker said, "The concept that adults are too old for education is relatively new. Confucious, the Hebrew Prophets, Aristotle and Plato directed their teaching to adults. They recognized no age limits."

Left — Charter member Mrs. George Reid of Port Lambton and first year member Mrs. Margaret Becher of Wallaceburg attending the 60th anniversary of the Becher Women's Institute.

★ ★ ★

There is no unbelief;
Whoever plants a seed beneath the soil
And waits to see it push away the clod,
He trusts in God.

Lizzie York Case

★ ★ ★

Elder's Mills — The local MPP spoke at a meeting of this branch and explained the recent changes in the Estate Tax laws.

Carlingford — The topic, "Living and Learning" was discussed by a guest speaker who said, "In older days children memorized the information presented to them, but now children are taught to dig up information for themselves."