Terra Cotta — Roll Call — A custom from another country or from another part of Canada.

Whitechurch — Discussing the motto, "World affairs are our affairs" a speaker said, "Up to forty years ago the ordinary man's geography became vague when it reached the ocean."

Beaverton — At an International Meeting a speaker who had toured in the Far East told of visiting the Save the Children office in Pusan, Korea. A picture of the child that the branch supports was taken and shown to the members.

Oakhill — "How Christmas is celebrated in Poland" was a feature of the Christmas meeting of this branch. A member, a native of Poland, emphasized that festival activities are centred on the children, who are taught poems and songs concerning the Nativity.

Brock Road — "Tell It How It Is" was the title of a panel discussion in which four members compared life in Canada with life in other countries, England, Norway and Sweden.

The accommodation for the weekend will be the Montrose Motor Inn on the Queen Elizabeth Highway. The weekend schedule will include a guided sight-seeing tour by bus to such points as Tussaud's Wax Museum, the Floral Clock and an illuminated tour of the Falls. Sounds very interesting!

Plan to attend. A conference is only what the people who come make it. Make sure you get caught up in the action that weekend. Let's all spark some enthusiasm in our clubs about this conference. This is one no one will want to miss. Let's make it the best yet. Enthusiasm is the password and active involvement and friendship the key to making this an idea and fun-packed weekend. The success of the conference depends on you. See you there!
