

EDITOR'S NOTES

Miss Frances Lampman, Specialist in the Clothing and Textile section of the Home Economics Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food has announced that a new kit, "Pattern Alterations and Fitting" is now available. This can be borrowed for a two week period from the Loan Library of the Home Economics Branch, O.D.A., Parliament Buildings, Toronto 5, Ontario.

The office of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario wishes to inform Women's Institute members and others that there are still a few copies of Dr. Ethel Chapman's book "Humanities in Homespun" available at the price of $3.50 for the paper cover and $5.75 for the cloth cover.

Your editor wishes to correct a mistake made in the Summer 1971 issue. The advance order price for copies of the Ontario Women's Institute Story is $2.75 not $2.50 as stated in the price list in the Summer issue. This price is for orders received before December 31, 1971 only.

Mrs. Austin Zoeller, F.W.I.O. President is announcing that nominations are being requested for the following offices and that Board Directors are reminded that they are also responsible for proposing names and making nominations at the Annual Meeting. Please note the new titles for the standing committee conveners as they are outlined in the new Handbook and on page 34 of this Home and Country.

1. Family and Consumer Affairs
2. Citizenship and World Affairs
3. Education and Cultural Activities
4. Public Relations Officer
