Mrs. Clarence Diamond—Public Relations Officer

President Mrs. Austin S. Zoeller welcomed fifteen newly elected Senior Directors and one new Junior Director to the 1971 Annual Meeting of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario. Sessions were held in the King Edward Sheraton Hotel, Toronto, November 23 to 27. In her opening address Mrs. Zoeller urged the Directors, as competent Women's Institute members, to enter discussions and make decisions in the best interests of the organization as well as getting to know each other well and having an enjoyable week.

Mrs. W. Kloetstra, serving her first term as Director, and Mrs. David Brown, serving her second term, as representatives of the Ontario Junior Women's Institutes were given a special welcome.

The President's Report

Completing her third year in office, Mrs. Zoeller expressed her appreciation for the opportunities she has had while working with Women's Institute members in all parts of Ontario. She said that the experience had helped her to develop a better understanding of people and their personalities, had assisted her in directing her energies toward fulfillment of Women's Institute objectives, and she urged the directors to be better homemakers and citizens and to use their leadership abilities in assisting others.

Mrs. Zoeller reviewed the many anniversary celebrations, District Annual Meetings, Area Conventions, County Rallies, Girls' Conferences, Officers' Conferences, 4-H Club Leaders' Breakfasts, the National Convention, the A.C.W.W. Oslo Conference, and other occasions at which she had represented F.W.I.O.
