The President reported that accomplishments during the past year were the completion of the 75 Anniversary project raising $50,000 for the expansion fund for Macdonald Institute, the complete revision of the Handbook; the attainment of the $40,000, the purchase price for the Erland Lee Homestead, etc. These, Mrs. Zoeller said were only possible in her presidential term because of the excellent "working together" of all Ontario Women's Institute people. She expressed special appreciation to the F.W.I.O. Executive and Board Directors for their co-operation and assistance at all times.

Secretary Treasurer's Report

Mrs. William G. Miller reported the following: 1,318 Ontario branches, with 31,031 members including 2,475 branch life members; office mailings, 2,419 letters, 2,811 receipts and parcels, etc.; 1,074 parcels of Women's Institute supplies. Large amounts of mail for F.W.I.O. were also sent out through the courtesy of the Home Economics Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food.

The Secretary Treasurer reported attending committee meetings, dealing with investments as directed, attending the A.C.W.W. Oslo Conference as a F.W.I.O. voting delegate, and serving as a speaker for an Educational Forum.

The Federated Women's Institutes of Canada

Mrs. Zoeller as Senior Director of F.W.I.C. representing Ontario, expressed appreciation to the Provincial Conveners for their efforts to co-ordinate the work of the National and International Standing Committee Conveners, thus giving more efficient direction for the work of the Branch Conveners.

Regulations for the National Competitions for the Trienium ending with the 1973 F.W.I.C. Convention in Banff, Alberta were reviewed.

The Citizenship Project is for a set of twenty slides with a taped commentary depicting women in action in the community.

The Handicraft Competition is for a Macrame Tote Bag.

Mrs. Zoeller pointed out that the complete regulations had been sent to each branch secretary and urged that the members prepare entries for these competitions.
