

Members of Bluewater Women's Institute celebrating a recent anniversary, from left — Mrs. E. Urstadt, member of the Provincial Board of Directors; Mrs. Jim Johnson, first secretary of the branch; Mrs. C. Cox, first president; Mrs. W. H. McKay, first vice-president.

Onondaga. Roll Call — Name a Canadian Woman I Admire and Why. One answer — I see by the roll call that you require

The name of a Canadian woman I admire.

Well I shall not name Judy LaMarsh, Anne Murray or Margaret Trudeau

Although they are names that all of us know.

For the most admirable woman, at least to me

Through the passing days, year after year

In times of joy or grief, who have brought me cheer

And I know as I look at each familiar face

That you have made my world a happier place

So I drink a toast with jubilee

To ladies of this community.

Leitrim Women's Institute honours their Life Members. From left — Mrs. T. H. Thomas, Mrs. John Conroy, Mrs. Wilson Spratt, Mrs. David Henderson, Mrs. Donald Depper. Absent when picture was taken, Mrs. Potter Boyd, Mrs. Bert Ritchie.

Hopeville Swinton. This branch entertained seven ladies who had been 4-H Club Leaders by holding a social afternoon for them. Some of the club girls were able to be present too.

Otterville. A speaker explained uses and misuses of commonly used drugs, at a branch meeting.

Millcreek. Motto — "Library books are great travellers." A speaker pointed out that a book can take you on an African Safari or to the bottom of the sea.

Louise. Roll Call — "Something I buy that my grandmother made at home."

Avening Evening. Visitors at a branch meeting were two representatives of the local Fire Department. They explained how to call the Fire Department, what to do while waiting for the Fire Department and how to prevent fires.

Sandford. A Scottish trained Public Health Nurse described her experiences working at a Mission in Labrador, the coastal islands of Newfoundland and Manitoba, at a branch meeting.

Ponsonby. A demonstration of beauty and make-up provided some interesting information at a branch meeting.

Kawartha Valley. A speaker at a branch meeting explained the differences in various kinds of paints and offered suggestions on how to correct problems.

★ ★ ★

When I can look Life in the eyes
Grown calm and very coldly wise
Life will have given me the Truth
And taken in exchange my youth.

—Sara Teasdale

★ ★ ★

The Prince Edward County Women's Institutes sponsored displays from local schools at the County Fair. Committee members in charge of the project, from left — Mrs. Graydon Calnan, W.I. representative on the fair board; Mrs. Pierce Jones, president Prince Edward County Institutes; Mrs. James Whiteford, president of the ladies' section of the county fair.