

Guests attending the 60th Anniversary of the Big Fork Aylsworth Women's Institute. Front from left — John Reid, M.P.P.; Mary Leah deZwart, Home Economist; Mrs. Cecil Kellar, Board Director. Back — Mrs. McLeod, District President; Dick Trivers, A.R.D.A. Representative and Ron Bolton, Assistant Agricultural Representative.

Teeterville — Motto — “The health of our nation tomorrow depends on the health of our children today.” A speaker talking on Drugs urged that mothers learn all they can about drugs so that they are ready to talk with some knowledge with their children.

Colborne. Roll Call — “Vanishing Landmarks.”

Stroud. Two members of the St. John Ambulance Brigade told of the history of their organization and gave some advice and demonstrations on First Aid.

From left — Mrs. Don Becker, Mrs. Nyle Eby, leaders for the Plains Women's Institute displaying Batik at a Waterloo County Summary Day.

Jarratt Creighton — Roll Call — a display of old books, readers, spellers, geographies, one old dictionary etc. were shown.

Tweed Chapman — “The History of Sewing” including the fascinating story of the invention and first uses of needles, thread, buttons etc. provided an interesting meeting program.

Massie. A guest entertainer displayed Sesame Street type puppets and demonstrated making them for a branch meeting.

Bayham. A display of art with a guest artist demonstrating sketching created much interest at a branch meeting.

Dromore. Slides and a Commentary on the Life and Paintings of Tom Thompson was an interesting program feature at a branch meeting.

Bognor — “A history of the postal service and of stamps along with a display of a stamp collection provided an interesting meeting program.”

When Crediton Women's Institute celebrated 20 years of reorganization, eight members were given Life Memberships — Top row, from left — Mrs. Leonard Wein, Mrs. Gordon Morlock, Mrs. Sam King, Mrs. Walter Weber. Bottom row, from left — Mrs. Wilfred Mack, Mrs. Aaron Wein, Mrs. Clayton Sims and Mrs. Irvine Finkbeiner.

Kemble — The members participated in a Woman's Institute talent night.

Cloverdale. The rapid growth of the Centralia College of Agriculture and Technology was described at a branch meeting. Details of the Home Economics course were emphasized.

Elma Centre. Motto — “To understand the present and plan for the future we need a knowledge of the past.”

Markstay. A Grade 1 teacher explained “The New School System” at a branch meeting.