

Port Dover. A trip to the World Scout Jamboree in Japan was described at a branch meeting by a local Boy Scout.

Cherry Valley — Motto — "Indifference is The Rust That Crumbles our Civilization." A speaker said "Indifference or a 'don't' care attitude is one of the worst sins.

Singhampton — A roll call — members bring an article from a foreign country was a part of an interesting program on the United Nations. Using a flip chart a member explained, the history and origin of the U.N., the purposes and principles, requirements for membership, the rules and duties of the various departments. The speaker said, "What originally began as a charter signed by 51 countries, now has 127 members.

★ ★ ★

Bowler Road — "Resolutions" was the topic of a program. The convener discussed the proper method for preparing a resolution and reviewed resolutions sustained at a recent meeting of the Provincial Board of Directors.

★ ★ ★

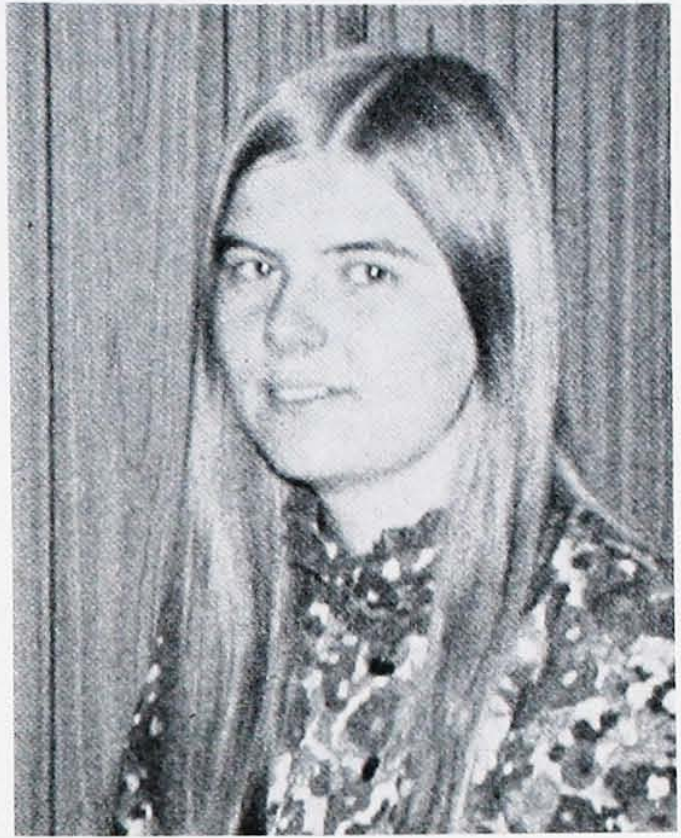

The blue bird carries the sky on his back.

Thoreau

★ ★ ★

Left — Mrs. J. Bellamy, of Kenora with group leader Mrs. Hugh McMillan at the Officers' Conference.

Miss Hazel Parker, winner of the Olive Deviney Scholarship offered by the West Northumberland Women's Institutes to girls participating in 4H Club projects.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Alfred Watt Memorial — Roll Call — "Little known industries on our doorsteps."

Singhampton — Roll Call — "The name of a soap product containing no phosphates."

Elsinore — Roll Call — "One way of combating pollution."

Zion — Roll Call — "One way in which changing agriculture is changing our lives."

Rosehill — Ways by which a housewife can help combat pollution were presented at a branch meeting.

Maple Ridge — A talk on the Christmas tree industry was of interest as a program topic.

North Lobo — A talk on Pollution stressing the importance of individual action and outlining ways that housewives could relieve the problem was of interest at a branch meeting.

Hillier — A speaker from the Ontario Horticultural Association describing this Association said, "The aim is to make the world a little more beautiful and a little better because you have been in it. It is 113 years old and has over 50,000 members."

Nesterville — Women's Institute members are planning a major cleanup of their village. "Everyone is cooperating," a spokesman said, "and we will have before and after pictures to show the results of our efforts."