

Model — Branch members and guests enjoyed a trip to the Stratford Shakespearean Festival production "As You Like It."

Holstein — Motto — "A woman who wants to do something finds a way; the other finds an excuse."

Essex — Roll Call — "Name a building that has disappeared from our vicinity."

Rockalong — Roll Call — "Have you made your will?"

Winger Wainfleet — Motto — "A man's character and his garden reflect the amount of weeding done in the growing season."

West End — Motto — "The rung of the ladder was never meant to rest on, but only to hold a man's foot long enough to enable him to put the other somewhat higher."

Nassagaweya — A skit, "Women's Institute, Did You Know That?" brought some valuable information on the organization to those attending the meeting.

Bethesda Reach — A speaker at a branch meeting said, "We are tackling some pretty big new projects this year and are a little nervous but we will try to think of Columbus:

When he set out he didn't know where he was going

When he got there he didn't know where he was.

When he returned home he couldn't say where he had been

But he knew he had discovered a wonderful new world."

South Neebing — Roll Call — "Name a food or utensil used 75 years ago." Among the answers were dust caps and copper wash boilers.

Left — Mrs. Karen Fitzsimmons, Home Economist in Durham and Northumberland Counties, presenting Miss Kathy Lawton with an award for 4H Homemaking Club projects.

Miss Margaret Ritchie, recipient of the North Wellington District Women's Institute Scholarship.

★ ★ ★

"He who knows how to be poor, knows everything." A French proverb.

★ ★ ★

Port Elgin — At a meeting with a Historical Research Program a speaker compared some feature of today's living with those of former years. Special mention was made of education, living standards, fashion, entertainment, etc.

Stanley — Roll Call — "What Public Relations Means To Me."

Wellman's — Roll Call — "A resolution I would like my child to make."

Fonthill — Roll Call — Display of a family heirloom, china or silver and tell its previous ownership and use. A talk explaining "Table Settings" was a part of the meeting program.

Gadshill — A guest speaker explained a certain aspect of "Communications" at a branch meeting. He spoke of Rational, Emotional, Chemical and Physical communication.

Maple Grove — Motto — "Changes are good, the unused mind like the unused attic gets cobwebs in the corners.

Bluewater — A glimpse of the past was a part of the 75th Anniversary celebrations for this branch. Each member introduced herself, told the history of her costume and displayed a family heirloom.