

From left — Mrs. Melville Steele, Mrs. Harold Allen, Miss Dorothy Allen, Mr. Archie Hughes, Mrs. Howard Hayes, Mrs. Stanley Allen, Mrs. Irvine Steele, Mrs. Mutch, R.N. Mrs. George Allen is seated in the "Geriatric Chair" presented by members of the Cassburn Women's Institute to the Maxville Manor where Mrs. George Allen is a resident. Mr. Hughes is the Administrator and Mrs. Mutch a nurse at the Manor.

Tara The Committee Convener presented interesting, pertinent information on the Food and Drug Act, Food Products and facts about toilet soaps.

River Road — Roll Call — A time saving device in my kitchen.

New Liskeard Roll Call — Tell something you have learned from a Food Forum.

Castlemore. When this branch was hostess to the Coronation Women's Institute the motto was, "Every privilege has its responsibilities. A speaker, a District Field Secretary of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind gave valuable information on the work of the C.N.I.B.

Coleridge Union Roll Call "Something I buy that my grandmother made at home."

Caledon — Roll Call—A low calorie recipe.

Hampshire-Ardrea — Roll Call. Name an herb and tell a dish in which it could be used.

Stanley — A member of the Ontario Food Council reported that food prices in Canada have risen 11% in the last two years compared with a 17½% increase in England. Women should return food to the grocery store if they find it unsatisfactory.

Coronation A speaker using the theme "The Family" referred to Vance Packard's book "A Nation of Strangers" in which he said that 40 million North Americans change their address at least once a year. The price of this upheaval in life patterns has created a whole new class — "The rootless."

Elmwood Roll Call — "A good deed someone did for you."

Jack's Lake — Roll Call — Each member wore a hat that she had decorated with flowers.

Bognor — Roll Call — Your leisure time activity.

Elmview The Convener spoke on household management. She said, "Homemaking is a business. Why does a woman have to apologize for being a housewife? She should be proud not apologetic."

Elsinore A local jeweller spoke at a branch meeting. He used pieces of fine china, crystal and flatware in his demonstration.

Aylmer — The local Home Economist gave a talk on Dehydrated Foods.

Kemble — A photographer explained tips on good picture taking and care of a camera, at a branch meeting.