

Members of the Sneigrove Women's Institute at the celebration of their 60th Anniversary.

CITIZENSHIP AND WORLD AFFAIRS

Courtland — Before the local Municipal elections the Women's Institute Branch arranged a special meeting and invited all the candidates and the public to attend. In this way the members of the community had an opportunity to meet and hear the candidates. Lunch and a social hour concluded the evening.

Wellington County Women's Institute took an active part in the Centennial celebrations at Arthur. On the literature table the rotating Erland Lee House cake was displayed along with Women's Institute badges, brochures, etc. A special leaflet prepared by a member telling of the history of the organization was handed out.

The County Women's Institutes entered an attractive float in the parade.

Laurel Roll Call — One question I would like to ask my Municipal Council.

Caledon — Motto — "What is our generation leaving behind?"

Mimosa Roll Call — Does the average citizen value his right to vote?"

Hickson. This branch sponsored a bus trip which took members and guests to visit farms owned by Old Order Mennonites. During this "experience in understanding" they visited farms, a craft shop and a general store.

Hanover. Roll Call — One step I can take toward world peace.

Life Members of Kars Women's Institute. Back row from left — Mrs. H. Wilson, Mrs. A. Argue, Mrs. W. J. Craig, Mrs. R. Dillon. Front row — Mrs. W. Drew, Mrs. W. McLeod, Miss Eliza Dres.

Mrs. Klazina Wasylycia, Mrs. Louise Geisel and Mrs. Marion Martin, members of the Winterbourne Women's Institute, who were instrumental in having the Historical Plaque in memory of Pioneers of the Winterbourne Community.

Coronation. The convener commenting on "World Affairs" commented on the influence our interest in the Olympics in Munich would have on the knowledge and thinking of Canadians. Members were told that this branch had sent a telegram of encouragement to Team Canada when it was in Moscow.