

From left — Mrs. Allan Ryan, secretary; Mrs. R. Horner, president, and Mrs. Harvey Noblitt, F.W.I.O. president, at the 1972 Cochrane Temiskaming Area Convention.

With the F.W.I.O. Branches

EDUCATION AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS

Seaforth — Motto — “Is it worthwhile to make a resolution?” A discussion followed. Roll call for this meeting was “A needed local improvement?” (Did this lead to a resolution? Ed.).

Springbrook — In a talk on Education a speaker said education will help individuals to cope with the future.

Bothwell's Corners — A speaker developed her topic, the history of the Associated Country Women of the World by means of a chart tracing the growth of rural women's organizations. She said that the first group, “The Agricultural Women's Organization of Finland” was founded in Finland in 1797.

Price's Corners — Motto — “Resolve to take more time to read as it is the fountain of wisdom.”

Dungannon — Motto — “Happy is the housewife who sees rainbows and not dishes in the soapsuds.”

Williscraft — A history of the Orange Lodge, once active in this local area was presented at a branch meeting.

Aspringle — A program feature of a meeting was “House Logs.” Roll Call was “Tell an item from your House Log or a current event.”

Oxford South District — A successful Tweedsmuir History tea was sponsored by the Women's Institute Branches of the District. All curators from the nineteen branches and the District Curator were present to display the books. The tea was held in the interesting atmosphere of a home built in 1850.

From left — Mrs. Peggy Hunter, President, Minnitaki Branch; Mrs. Dorothy Crigger, President, Kenora District; Mrs. Margaret Davis, President, Northwestern Convention Area; all members of the Minnitaki Women's Institute Branch.