

Miss Ruth Miller, a former member of the Balderson 4H Girls' Homemaking Club. Ruth has received the Ottawa Citizen Award for Club Work in Lanark County.

Caledon — A guest speaker brought information on land ownership, joint tenants, tenants in common etc. to the attention of those attending a branch meeting. Roll call for the meeting was "Should women enter politics and why?"

Seaforth — Roll call — "A way to teach children to be good citizens."

Morrish — The local member of the Provincial Parliament attended a branch meeting and explained regional government to those attending.

Winger Wainfleet — Motto — "A family is a training ground for peaceful citizenship."

Belgrave — A speaker using posters discussed the United Nations. Roll call was "Name a member of the U.N."

Belgrave — Roll call — "Name a government official on any level and state what he does."

Mrs. Marilyn Roman received her Advanced Honours for 4H Club work with the Club sponsored by the Stittsville Women's Institute. Mrs. Roman, formerly Marilyn Groombridge, started Club work in Welland County.

Miss Heather Payne, the first recipient of Advanced Honours in Peterborough County. A former member of a 4H Homemaking Club sponsored by the Warsaw Women's Institute.

Coronation — A local deputy reeve gave information on regional government. Lively discussion and many questions followed the talk.

Honeydale — Roll call — "Should Canada open her doors to all nationalities for immigration? Two new Canadian members told of their experiences in emigrating to Canada."

Maple Leaf — The Women's Institute Branch purchased $125.00 worth of yarn to be made into garments to be given to charity. They also made 300 pounds of soap from fat saved by members and others to be sent to the Unitarian Services.

Mitchell Square — Motto — "The Canada we enjoy was not brought to nationhood by timid citizens."

Miss Lorraine Griffiths who was awarded the Leeds East District Women's Institute Scholarship and is now a student at the University of Guelph.