

time employment in a fabric shop it's a real temptation to buy material.

Her parents are dairy farmers, so outdoor sports appeal to her especially snowmobiling and skating. Crafts interest her too and at present she is busy making snowmen from starched string.

Joan Patrick, York

An honour student all during high school, she graduated from Cayuga Secondary School as an Ontario Scholar. She is in her first year at the University of Guelph in the College of Family and Consumer Studies and plans to major in Consumer Studies with emphasis on Clothing and Textiles.

She has no definite plans after graduation. Baking and sewing are her hobbies with hopes to take up needlework.

Joan has never been a 4-H member however Mrs. Patrick is a long time member of Winona Women's Institute branch.

Karen Robinson, Lakefield

Karen has completed nine units with the Selwyn 4-H Homemaking Club and says she really enjoyed them. "They were undoubtedly a contributing factor in my decision to go into the field of Home Economics and they are also proving beneficial with my courses."

Completing her first semester at the University of Guelph in a Family Studies major which will lead to a B.A. Sc., Karen has not made a definite decision after graduation. After completing the course at Guelph she might go on to the University of Toronto and get her Bachelor of Education degree and teach secondary school or go into extension work as a County Home Economist.

Sewing, crocheting and other related handicrafts occupy her spare time, also cooking, reading, indoor and outdoor sports as a spectator or competitor.

Mary Atkinson, Barrie

Graduated from Eastview Secondary School and while there was a Prefect for three years and played basketball for a year. It is interesting to know that although Mary was an "academic" she won several prizes in typing and shorthand.

Both Mary and her mother feel that working in 4-H has been time well spent and "one gains more than one gives." Mary has 10 projects to her credit and her mother has lead six clubs. Mrs. Atkinson has found these young people to be challenging, interesting and keenly aware of the 4-H motto and pledge.

Mary lives just outside the city of Barrie in the midst of a winter and summer recreational area and for the past two summers has been employed by the Georgian Foundation for the Performing Arts.

Presently enrolled at the University of Guelph in the Applied Human Nutrition Course she finds the food projects from 4-H most beneficial.

Mary has not definitely decided on her career after graduation, however, with emphasis on food and Canadian food supplies in such demand, she hopes to make a contribution in some form in the field of Applied Human Nutrition. In this way Mary says, "I hope to really fulfill the 4-H pledge."

Miss Janet Wanless, Phelps-ton, winner of the Florence P. Eadie, Ontario Women's Institute Scholarship.

Miss Patricia Trethewey, Petrolia, winner of the Dorothy Futcher, Ontario Women's Institute Scholarship.

Janet Wanless

She is in her first year at Sheridan College in Animation. Janet says, "It is a three year Course and has become a pioneer in the animated film industry in Canada. The course entails a study of motion, much drawing, film making techniques and a good understanding of art fundamentals. Although it requires much precise and detailed work the results are fascinating."

She has completed thirteen 4-H Homemaking Units, an assistant Club Leader, on student council and school newspaper and is involved in Church work.

Mrs. Wanless has been Secretary of her Branch, P.R.O. and held various Convenerships at Branch and District.

Patricia Trethewey

She is a student at the University of Guelph completing her second semester at the College of Family and Consumer Studies, in the Applied Human Nutrition Course.

Patricia has completed sixteen 4-H Homemaking Club projects as well as participating in 4-H Agricultural projects, and has displayed leadership ability in her Club work.

Mrs. Trethewey has held various offices including President of Adanac Women's Institute and is also a 4-H Homemaking Club leader.

Patricia's hope for the future is to work with food in some specialized field.

Ontario Women's Institute Scholarships

Four District, County or Area Scholarships were ratified by the Provincial Board Directors.

All are Ontario Women's Institute Scholarships. The Algoma District, Lilly Petty, was won by Miss Emily Mosher, RR 2, Iron Bridge; The East Northumberland District Scholarship by Miss Sharon Rose, RR 5, Colborne; The Olive Deviney West Northumberland District Scholarship, Miss Kathy Stephen, RR 3, Baltimore; Prince Edward County, Miss Anne Foster, RR 9, Picton.