

Bowmanville W.I. quilt at the Science Centre. L-r. Mrs. M. Wiseman, Mrs. P. Patfield, Mrs. T. Buttery, Mrs. M. Flintoff, and Mrs. S. Buttery.

Priceville W.I. are concerned about Sunday store openings and some TV programs and are writing their local members of Parliament voicing their objections.

St. Williams W.I. Mrs. Cecil James, Convener of Agriculture and Canadian Industries spoke on vegetable marketing — today and yesterday. Having been raised on a market garden farm, she knew her subject well. Many changes have taken place since her childhood especially the machinery. The widespread use of planters, sprayers, pickers, etc. and the constant need to improve the seed to meet the changing tastes and demands of the customer. She also spoke on the import and export situation in Canada today.

Stormont District a busy place to be. L-r — District Annual guests, Board Director, Mrs. Geo. McCaffrey; Mayor Ed Lumley, Cornwall, Mrs. Mary Smith, District President, Mrs. Linda Beer, District Secretary Treasurer; The Reverend Donald Scott, Maxville, guest speaker.

Stormont District Annual guest speaker, the Reverend Donald Scott, Maxville spoke about Jean Vanier and his work at L'Arche, which is spreading its influence rapidly around the world.

Mrs. Neil Cleary, Past District President, was presented with a scroll in recognition of her years of service.

Active in the field of broadcasting of Women's Institute News over CJSS three times a week, gifts were presented to Mrs. Innes MacGregor and Mrs. Grace Esdale for their fine work.

Mayor Ed Lumley complimented the Women's Institutes on their interest in the cultural life of the community.

Beechwood W.I. — celebrate 70th Anniversary. L-r — Mrs. Ernest Milliken, charter member; Mrs. John Bannister, President; Mrs. Herman Sinker life member and President in 1924, who had the honour of cutting the cake.

West Ops W.I. Mrs. Grant McArthur spoke on hobbies, pointing out that hobbies give all of us a new dimension to our lives. She displayed one of her hobbies, a collection of butter pats and suggested many ideas for hobbies. Roll Call — Hobbies and pastimes. Motto — Thrice happy is the man who has a hobby.

Dungannon W.I. celebrate 60th with events during 1974. The first celebration a pot luck dinner, with special guests from the District and Area. The program was entitled "Canada — this land of ours." The second event was a dessert and euchre with over 80 in attendance. The next a summer picnic and plans are for a Christmas party to entertain the husbands.

Huron West District Annual, guests take time from busy day to pose for picture.

L-r — Mrs. Donald Humes, President and Mrs. Graham McNee, Secretary Treasurer of Huron West District; Mrs. Eleanor Bradnock, London Area President; Mrs. Stanley Bride, guest speaker; Mrs. Gordon Papple, F.W.I.O. Board Director