REPORT — A.C.W.W.

Mrs. H. Noblitt told about the meeting Mrs. Roberts, UN representative, attended on UNICEF/NGO meeting. Since funds are short a new policy has been devised to establish a system of cost sharing for oil producing countries who are in a better position to help themselves as far as UNICEF projects are concerned. Studies at the meeting centered around: the young child, non formal education and transport maintenance. UNICEF cannot solve all the world's needs. Increased attention must be given to the creation of National Food and Nutrition policies.

ACWW is one of the 340 NGOs having status with UNESCO. In June, 1975, there will be a Youth Symposium. Working groups under five co-ordinators in several NGO countries will study the rights and responsibilities of youth in — the family; in educational institutions; in employment; in society and in the context of issues raised by youth emancipation.

From the ACWW chart showing contribution to "Pennies for Friendship", Ontario was third. Our contributions were exceeded by England and the Country Women's Council of the United States. In 1974 Ontario members contributed $11,000.00.

Contributing membership in A.C.W.W. has been raised to $6.00 per year.

In order to attend ACWW you must be a contributing member three years prior to a Conference.
