

Entrances Award Winners

All the Entrance Award students attending the University of Guelph, Family and Consumer Studies were present for a reception and presentation in the University Centre.

Welcome by Dean

Dr. Janet Wardlaw, Dean of Family and Consumer Studies welcomed all and stated appreciation for all the Women's Institutes have done over the years in furthering higher education. She briefly referred to the anniversary project whereby FWIO members raised $50,000.00 toward the expansion program for additional facilities to "Macdonald Institute". She encouraged the recipients to explore the possibility of a career as a Home Economist.

Miss McKercher

In turn, Dr. Wardlaw introduced Miss Helen McKercher, Director of the Home Economics Branch, who said she was happy to come and extended sincere congratulations to all the girls and looked forward to meeting all personally.

Presentations

Mrs. Harvey Noblitt, retiring President of FWIO, stated "the Women's Institute has always been and will continue to be interested in youth knowing that some day you will be mothers in the homes of tomorrow." She spoke of Mrs. John A. King one of the first entrance award recipients and her contribution to the Women's Institute and continued to say she "hoped some of you receiving awards today will become future Women's Institute members."

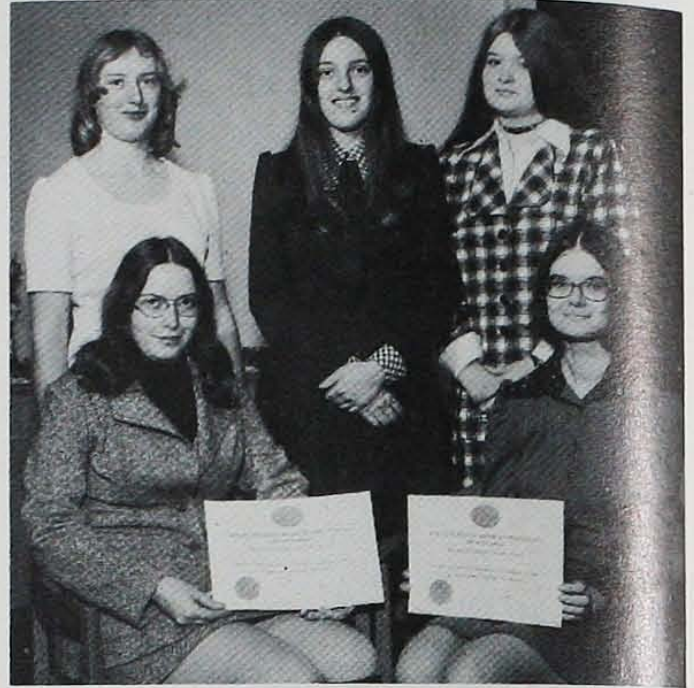

Mrs. Noblitt presented certificates and Dr. Wardlaw presented the cheques to the nineteen winners.
