

drawn from the Handbook including good form for members, duties of officers, etc.

Mrs. Shirley Whittington, a columnist and daughter of a former FWIO Board Director, reminisced with such wit and candour about Women's Institute in her Mother's home. Summing up her talk "W.I. may not be the salt of the earth but it may be the salvation of it."

Simcoe County Map — This is the only area in the province comprised of one county. The map provides a visual of the location of Branches and Districts. The PRO is responsible for discs with branch names and the five districts are different colours, so a quick glance tells the story of attendance.

Cochrane-Temiskaming Area

The Area Convention had "Communications" as its theme, speaking about communications Mrs. Joe Wright referred to U Thant's quote, "we have reached the moon, but we haven't reached each other."

Mr. Robert Rhodes had an excellent display of antique radios and telephones which was greatly enjoyed; also a display of kits from the Loan Library and 4H sportswear with knits.

A variety show — dancing by local school children, skits and plays by the Wild Rose Branch provided banquet entertainment.

A discussion was held on the desirability of using microphones, so speakers might better communicate with the audience.

Huntley W.I. hold meeting at home of secretary Mrs. Eddie Armstrong (extreme right).

Eastern Area

Madame Jules Leger, wife of the Governor General was guest speaker. She stated "Being the wife of a Governor General is like any other woman who has chosen the home as a career!" however, there is a responsibility "for creating an atmosphere for my husband and family which is conducive to happiness."

She congratulated the Women's Institute for giving women a choice between homemaking and a career. Women working at home are better able to see the deficiencies existing in society. "Women, regardless of what they do, have a duty to rock the boat by creating awareness of problems and taking action."

The Public Relations Report was presented again in an imaginative way by Mrs. Arnold Wilson. A display of the "Global Village" dolls representing countries belonging to ACWW was well received. Also a skit From a Beehive, characters such as Bee Thoughtful; Bee Unselfish; Bee Honest; Bee Kind, etc. depicting why Mary Stewart wrote the Collect.

Special Reminder
Post Office regulation
Always include your code
along with your address.
This is necessary.

Excellent displays illustrating information available through Women's Institute. Viewing one of the displays is (L) Dorothy Cosby, Vineland; Jean Egerter, Welland; Mrs. Jehn Morrison, Jordon, Second Vice President Hamilton Area.

25th Anniversary of Wellburn. W.I. Executive (L) seated Mrs. Eric Facey, Mrs. Ken Mainprize, Secretary; Mrs. Geo. Pickel. Standing (L-R) Mrs. Carson Lamond, Mrs. Cecil Bridgeman, Mrs. Max Frehner, Mrs. Steve Fedyk, President; Mrs. Wm. Hayes, Mrs. Wilbur Facey.