DAISY TIME

See, the grass is full of stars,
Fallen in their brightness;
Hearts they have of shining
gold,
Rays of shining whiteness.

Buttercups have honeyed
hearts,
Bees they love the clover,
But I love the daisies' dance
All the meadow over.

Blow, O blow, you happy
winds,
Singing summer's praises,
Up the field and down the field
A-dancing with the daisies.

AVONTON WI — have a panel entitled "A Woman's Place in a Man's World". Panelists included a housewife, businesswoman, community worker, and politician.

Mrs. Harold Murray in her summary of the discussion defined women's liberation as "the opportunity to make mature choices in the interest of the woman herself and the people who depend on her."

She said, "Poise ceases to be a matter of hemline; it is knowing who she is, what she is and that she belongs." She suggested farm wives have reached a high level of emancipation, with their companionship with their husbands and their participation in family business.

YARMOUTH GLEN WI — Citizenship and World Affairs.

Roll call — Name a Canadian woman who left her footprints in the sands of time.

Motto — Better to try something and fail than to try nothing and succeed.

Programme — A woman lawyer discussed woman's role in the community. She emphasized her duties as Mother and homemaker first and then her contribution to her community in providing leadership.

KING WI — Roll Call — Name an Indian Tribe.

Speaker — Mrs. Emmerson Wallace told about the life and activities of the Cree Indians living in the village of Paint Hills on James Bay. She described the skinning of a Lynx by a Cree woman (not a drop of blood fell to the floor) and told about watching a rabbit skinning race. Slides complemented her talk and she spoke highly of the bead and leather craft work.

MOTTOES

The only value of time is its use.

When there is no vision the people perish.

Strange how much you've got to know before you know how little you know.

To climb steep hills requires slow pace at first.
