

Port Elgin 75th Anniversary. Cutting anniversary cake l - r Mrs. Lewis Cobean and Mrs. Howard Blowes.

Dutton WI celebrate 50 years of Women's Institute activities. L - r Mrs. Isabel Percival, President; Mrs. J. A. Brown and Mrs. Florence Bennett, both presented with Life Memberships; Miss Margaret Leitch, Treasurer; Mrs. Agnes Hales, Vice President.

Mrs. Erie McCallum also received a life membership but was not able to be present. Long time members Mrs. J. A. McCallum, Mrs. Herbert Green and Miss Minnie received special recognition.

SALTFLEET WI — special guest Mrs. Kay Dwyer, editor in chief of the book "Saltfleet Then and Now." She told about the gathering of the information and included details required for such an undertaking, and told about the hours of work, worry and fun. Also Mrs. L. Fee, guest from Silkworth, Sunderland, England told about her branch activities in England, especially their branch participation in drama and pantomime and their presentations to the public and other organizations.

Cranbrook WI celebrate 25th by inviting former members to attend a dinner. Mrs. Clare Veitch, President presided for the evening programme. L - r Charter members Mrs. Martin McDonald, Mrs. Glen Hueither, Mrs. Russel Knight and Mrs. Clem Steffler.

Morewood WI celebrate 70th Year
160 attended the special event including the Township Reeve; Eastern Area President, Mrs. Hugh McMillan; the Provincial Board Director and District President. Three members received life memberships Mrs. H. Stewart, Mrs. D. Runions and Mrs. H. H. Hutchinson.

NASSAGAWEYA WI — The Institute members continue to support pollution control by assisting at the SPIN collecting depots.

COLBORNE WI — Robert Burns Day was recognized by members speaking about customs of that day, reciting poems and telling about his birthplace. The guest speaker, "the McFarlanes and McGregors" were piped in by Mrs. Rutherford. The 4-H girls were guests and among them, Winnie Jouvstra, the first provincial honour member from Colborne WI and Kendra Mills, county honour girl. Mrs. Earl Thompson past District President is a member of this branch.

PINEGROVE WI — roll call, name famous women. It was agreed there are so many well known women but the volunteers working in each community are filling a genuine need, and are very special.

GILBERT MILLS WI — Agriculture and Canadian Industries meeting — a tour of the mushroom plant in Wellington. Roll Call — Name a change in family living.