RECOGNITION FOR DEDICATED SERVICE

For the past 29 years Mrs. Allan Carroll has shared her talents with Camden East Women's Institute, as well as the community.

Her creative talents are appreciated by the members of Addington District, at each District Annual the WI banner designed and created by Mrs. Carroll is displayed. Many local scenes hang in the Carroll home, among them a painting depicting "The Song My Paddle Sings", a competition winner in a WI project.

Her devoted leadership in the 4-H Clubs over many years allowed her to work with the youth of the community.

She has served in many capacities in the branch, her latest office is sharing the Tweedsmuir duties with Mrs. Tom Good.

Upon accepting the life membership certificate she told of the benefits she has enjoyed, the educational opportunities and skill training afforded her. She concluded "I bristle when some people dismiss WI as a sort of coffee klatch. It's not that at all."

Life membership badge being pinned on Mrs. Allan Carroll by president Mrs. Glen Lawlor. Mrs. Lawlor was a 4-H Homemaking Club member under the leadership of Mrs. Carroll.

JOHNSON MAY W.I. have completed a year of celebrating a quarter century. An exchange of 25 year old pictures by members provided fun as members tried to identify one another. The first minutes were read, a memorial to deceased members, highlights were reviewed. Over the years a book exchange was started, 4-H clubs sponsored, and contributions made to community activities.
