

Selwyn WI had for its roll call—Bring a piece of Handicraft that you have made in the last year. Susan Doyle, convener of Family and Consumer Affairs spoke on “washing habits.” A discussion on washers and dryers took place, soap products, the kind of water and its effects on soap products.

Puce WI celebrate 25th anniversary and presented life memberships to front row L-R Mrs. Edward Baker, first year member; Mrs. Wm. Sales, organizer of Branch; Mrs. Walter Willis, first year member; back row L-R Mrs. Clare Wilkins, Mrs. Maynard Cline, Mrs. Thomas Prince, all charter members. Absent for the picture Mrs. Nyall Heatherington, charter member.

Clachan WI present life membership certificate to Mrs. Garnet Long on her eightieth birthday. Mrs. Gordon Gow, former Board Director, presented the certificate and the badge, (a gift of her family) was pinned on by Mrs. Arthur Long. One hundred friends and neighbours were present to wish Mrs. Long many more happy years in the WI and community work.

Charter members at Quaker Hill WI 25th anniversary celebration. L-R front row Mrs. Wm. Jones and Mrs. Ed Noble; Centre Mrs. Milton Cornish first president; centre row Mrs. Turner Forsyth; Mrs. Don Noble; top Mrs. John Kydd, Mrs. Ron Duckworth, Mrs. Dorothy Monkman.

Little's Hill Women's Institute Tweedsmuir History Curator Lil Srigley was in charge. Members told stories relating to the horse and buggy days.

Brock Road WI presentation of the first life membership to Mrs. Roy Stickney by Mrs. H. J. Thomas, both are charter members.

Fullerton WI have Metric meeting. Mrs. J. Kane and Mrs. G. DeVries a native of Holland demonstrated “Metric Made Easy.” Bran muffins were made by Mrs. Kane with Metric measures and later served for lunch, she also conducted a contest. Mrs. DeVries brought some Oliebollen made from a Dutch cook book. Roll Call bring a Metric recipe or tell about something metric we will be or are living with.

Rocklyn WI Mrs. Edward Lanktree was presented with a life membership by the President. Mrs. Mac Breadner and the badge was pinned on by a niece, Mrs. Ellwood Falls.

Lucasville WI members have carried on correspondence with members of the Narboro Branch, PEI, ever since the National Convention.

A lobster luncheon was much enjoyed by Lucasville delegates on PEI day supplied by Narboro WI Kensington. Lucasville members made pot holders and embroidered the name of the branch to send down as a token of friendship. An exchange of ideas for programmes and crafts has proven helpful.

TALK ON RHODESIA

Riverside Heights Women's Institute hear Mrs. Ray Cole talk on her recent trip. She described the modern homes and apartments, and the beautiful flowers there. House boys live on the owner's property and are well cared for by the owner. On display from Africa were: dresses, beads, ivory ring, various carvings, soapstone, wood items, impala purse and salt and pepper shakers made from a horn, bead work, crocheted articles, and a purse of elephant skin. She also spoke of Victoria Falls which is much larger and more beautiful than our Niagara Falls.

West Ops WI held Agriculture and Canadian Industries meeting. Roll Call: What did you do with your friendship garden? Motto: Life is like a seed it grows according to its care.

Mrs. Lester Corley spoke on the ARC industry in Lindsay and how the lives of the 20 trainees, between the ages of 16-50, working there have been enriched.

Burford WI plan to tour Ivy's Florist in Port Dover to see the roses.

Gilford WI enjoyed a demonstration of carding, weaving and displays of different types of wool by Mrs. R. Alle.

Mitchell Square WI roll call: Suggestions for improving the Women's Institute image.

Hawkestone WI. Plans for a proposed new Hawkestone park were explained by James Rice and John Deveth. They presented an outline for which a local initiatives programme grant was approved.