SPECIAL MEETING FOR SPECIAL PEOPLE

Bluewater WI held a Public Relations meeting in charge of Mrs. E. G. Urstadt and Mrs. Wolf Hofmann.

Four well deserved presentations were made. Engraved sterling silver pins were presented to Mrs. Wm. Turner, a member for 31 years, Mrs. Keith Hilsden a 30 year member, Mrs. R. G. Barfoot, a member for 25 years and Mrs. Wm. Monahan a member for 31 years. Mrs. Monahan was also presented with a crystal cornflower vase for having held consecutive membership. The presentation was made by the President Mrs. Roy Armstrong.

The programme included a questionnaire on the Handbook, and with the aid of graphs a talk on the structure of the Women's Institute from Branch to International level was given. The history of the founding of the Women's Institute including the involvement of Erland Lee and Adelaide Hoodless, as well as the origin of the Mary Stewart Collect were reviewed.
