A warm welcome was extended to all by Dr. Janet Wardlaw, Dean of the College, who introduced the President of FWIO, Mrs. Clarence Diamond. Before presenting the Award Certificates, Mrs. Diamond outlined the history of the Scholarship program initiated on the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of Women's Institutes in honour of Mrs. Hoodless and pioneer W.I. women. Congratulations were extended to the winners whose achievements merited each receiving the Award, as well as a challenge that in the course of their education they become more understanding human beings tolerant of the other person's viewpoint.

Miss Molly McGhee, Director of the Home Economics Branch, Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food, extended best wishes and outlined co-operative efforts with the University of Guelph. Also attending were Mrs. Margaret Woof, Supervisor of Junior Extension, Miss Lorraine Holding, Regional Supervisor, and Mrs. V. Campbell, University of Guelph. An informal sandwich supper followed the presentations.
