

WI's On The Go

Dublin W.I., Perth South District, entered a float in the centennial parade celebrating the 100th year of the police village of Dublin.

York East District members visit the Erland Lee Home during WI week.

Some of the ladies from Victoria East District Annual hosted by Pleasant Valley W.I. L-r Mrs. Oscar Carew; Mrs. Marguerite Adams, Area PRO; Mr. Dave Murray, Warden; Mrs. Stan Lee, President, Pleasant Valley; Mrs. Percy Junkin, Central Area President; Mrs. M. Reeds.

BRANT NORTH 75TH

The beautiful green lawns, shade trees and gerise and pink flower gardens at the Adelaide Hunter Hoodless Homestead was the stage for the 75th anniversary old-fashioned tea of the Brant North District.

The executive board directors and alterpates served lemonade, oatmeal and sugar cookies. A four tier birthday cake made up of pink and yellow leed cupcakes was centered on the beautifully appointed table. Those serving were in old-fashioned costumes.

Mrs. Harvey Featherstone, President, introduced the guests including Mrs. Glynis Connery, representing the Young Farmers Club of Ulster, Northern Ireland and Miss Eunice Holdcroft of Staffordshire, England.

Mrs. John Charlton, former District President, introduced the beautiful red Adelaide Hoodless Rose to the interested gathering and Mrs. Owen Loveless, hostess, explained future flower garden plans.

Ravenna W.I. members, Grey East District, work on a quilt to be sold at their craft fair.