

MISS LORENE ARCHDEKIN

A former dairy princess, asked where are we going in the 80's? It's impossible to look into a crystal ball to see the future unfold, so all that is left is to predict the future.

She touched on the many problems facing all of us today and pointed out that problems in communities will grow or diminish depending on our concern as individuals. It is up to us as women to go on to school, that the body mind and spirit will only develop when we use the talents we possess to become more creative and accomplish desired goals.

When you wake up in the morning, feel you are 'in control', don't expect a perfect life automatically, the life you choose is up to you.

THE BOTTOM LINE

Ken Knox summed up the Conference very well when he said, "this week you have built castles in the sky, now go home and build foundations under them".

REDNERSVILLE WI, PRINCE EDWARD DISTRICT, celebrated their 70th Anniversary by inviting all branches in the District to a birthday party.

An interesting account of the first meeting was read, followed by a humorous program. Two members, Mrs. H. Montgomery and Mrs. E. Young were presented with life memberships and corsages.

A lovely afternoon ended with the cutting of a birthday cake by the President Mrs. C. Vanclief and life member Mrs. R. Giles.
