HOME ECONOMIST SPEAKS

DIXON W I, STORMONT DISTRICT, entertained the 4-H girls and their mothers. An Erland Lee tea spoon was presented to Sally Hutchison for achieving Provincial Honours, also to Christine Bilmer and Carol Aitken. Mrs Ruth Alguire, President, presented a first aid kit to the Northfield Community Association for use in their Hall. Guest speaker Mary Michels, Home Economist told about the 4-H program in Stormont and about her duties and work in the tri-counties. Pamphlets were available to all, explaining the work of OMAF. To close the special meeting honoring the 50th anniversary of the Branch an anniversary cake was served to all.

JEAN BRUMPTON WI, OXFORD SOUTH DISTRICT held a Fall Festival of Crafts in the Community Complex, Tillsonburg. Forty-seven exhibitors from across southwestern Ontario demonstrated and sold crafts.

A woodcarver was putting the finishing touches on a chest, while other booths such as, three dimensional decoupage, stuffed toys and candle-making, drew large audiences. Quilts both old and new proved to be a real interest spot.

Instead of a bake sale, a lunch bar was well patronized.

As a community effort in the Spring, the Branch donated quilts to the children's ward at Tillsonburg and London Children's hospital.
