

Volunteer Work

If you are attending the ACWW Conference in Vancouver, 1983, would you like to offer your services in assisting at the Conference? If so, these are the questions asked.

Give your name, address, marital status, type of membership in ACWW; WI activities in Ontario (include offices held); physical limitations, i.e. hearing impairment, etc.; work experiences: (selling, dealing with public, etc.); language spoken; Nursing or First Aid; drivers licence, will you have a car available? Hobbies; knowledge of Vancouver and UBC campus; musical; typing or other office experience; display experience; newspaper, radio or television experience — describe; when staying in Vancouver, at UBC or elsewhere? When available? Have you already attended an ACWW Conference? Any other skills or activities? Are you capable of walking a minimum of two miles daily?

Return to:

Mrs. R. L. Albany,
1245 Craigflower,
Victoria,
British Columbia
V9A 2X9

Erland Lee

RECOGNIZED BY HALL OF FAME ASSOCIATION

Nine outstanding agriculturalists will be honored by the Ontario Agricultural Hall of Fame Association on June 13, 1982 at 2.30 pm on the grounds of the Ontario Agricultural Museum, Milton.

Among the group to be recognized, will be FWIO's nominee, Mr. Erland Lee.

Tickets must be purchased ahead, from the Agricultural Museum, Hall of Fame office, for the unveiling, which includes lunch after the ceremony.

From A Flicker To A Flame

is the theme of the 85th Anniversary

Mrs. Ziny Westebring-Muller,
ACWW President
Guest Speaker, August 12, 1982

WANTED

SECRETARY

for

THE FEDERATED WOMEN'S INSTITUTES
OF ONTARIO

Mrs. Jeanetta VanSickle gave notice at 1981 Annual Board meeting, she would be retiring, November 1982.

Application forms are available from the FWIO office

8th floor
801 Bay St.
Toronto
M5S 1Y9

Any active Women's Institute member, capable of handling full secretarial responsibilities, may apply.

Duties include taking and typing minutes, composing letters on own initiative, reviewing correspondence for follow-up. Available to attend all meetings as scheduled. Working closely with the President and Executive, as well as the office Secretary in operating the FWIO organization.

Applications must be returned to the FWIO office
September 1, 1982.