ONTARIO JUNIOR FARMERS' BOOK

A RURAL LEGACY, a soft-covered 220 page book featuring many photos was written by Linda Biesenthal, Kenilworth.

The book traces the development of a rural youth Organization in Ontario, detailing the growth, and telling the background history of short courses and Junior Farmers' War Effort and many other aspects of their work.

In addition, a portion of the book is a collection of reminiscences and reflections of the organization "yesterday and today."

The Rural Legacy is available through local Junior Farmers Associations and the Junior Farmers Association of Ontario, 801 Bay St. Toronto, M5S 1Z1, for $10.00.
