

Around the province...

A FIRST FOR WOMEN'S INSTITUTES — Pictured here are a mother and daughter team, both actively engaged in Women's Institutes. At left is Mrs. Morley Clark of Highgate, who was elected president of Kent East District in May of this year. Equally active is her mother Mrs. Fred Reinhardt, also of Highgate, who moved up to the position of President, from First Vice President at the Southwestern Area convention held recently in Wallaceburg. This is the first time in history of Women's Institutes in the Southwestern area, that a mother and daughter have held the positions of president at both the district and area levels simultaneously. Mrs. Reinhardt has held every position at the branch level with the exception of Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Clark was president of the Highgate branch for two years and in addition has held a number of convenerships.

THUNDER BAY MARKS FWIO'S 85TH - Three longtime WI members — (l-r): Lillian Bonnett, past board director; Edith Purcell, provincial president from 1950 to '53; and Elizabeth Manley, past board director — pose at a cairn presented by the North District WI in 1967 to Centennial Park. The park was the setting for 85th anniversary celebrations.

SERVICE SIGNS — Mrs. Dwight Bennett (l), president of the Kemptville WI, accepts delivery of two steel signs to be placed on the service club notice boards at the entrances to the town of Kemptville.

IPM DISPLAY — Mrs. Calvin Carmichael (l) and Mrs. Arthur Hodgins (r) pose in front of a map of Middlesex County, part of their display at the 1982 International Plowing Match. Each branch was marked with a flashing coloured light.
