Free microfilming

Tweedsmuir curators, if you're interested in getting your Tweedsmuir Books microfilmed, contact Valerie Anderson Mann at INTECH (1984) Associates. Valerie is interested in microfilming Tweedsmuir's and Minute Books, free of charge and can be reached by writing to 1025 Hargrieve Rd., Unit 3, London, Ontario, N6E 1P7. (INTECH reserves the right to the master copy of your books' film.)

Thank you to Edgeley

A special thank you is extended to the members of Edgeley Branch, York West District for their contribution of the two rods holding the bicentennial wall-hanging in place at Queen's Park.

Home & Country delivery

A few misunderstandings have arisen regarding the possibility of individual delivery of Home & Country magazine. A decision to implement this new system has not yet been reached and subsequently, it is premature of branches and districts to submit the names and addresses of its members for a new mailing list. In order to avoid any disappointment, please discontinue submitting lists of names and addresses until a decision has been made.

Free placemats

Bicentennial placemats, featuring a typical menu from 1784 and recipes, are available to groups, free of charge, by writing to Communications Branch, Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food, Queen's Park, Legislative Buildings, Toronto, Ontario, M7A 1A5.
