

The Go

The Tweedsmuir History Committee of Sydenham WI sponsored a Heritage Day for the Village of Sydenham in June. Participants could enjoy a walking tour of the village, view a slide show on historic sites and United Empire Loyalist homes and buy home baking. Jane MacLennon of the Frontenac Rug Hookers demonstrated the pioneer art of rug hooking.

Erika Merimets (right) and Sylvia Charette are two of the many members of Anderdoon WI who were on hand at the Fort Malden Mall in Amherstburg in May to explain the many ways Women's Institutes are involved in the community. The women used the WI display as their background and displayed various crafts and WI publications.
