

Network

Program materials available

Printed materials for programs are available from FWIO Convener of Citizenship and World Affairs, Mrs. Murray Forrest, Box 129, Princeton, N0J 1V0. The following topics are covered: citizenship, the Canadian Constitution, Charter of Rights and Freedoms, Human Rights Day, women and pensions, disarmament, pornography, child abuse, latch key children, children and development (in the Third World), ACWW, Pennies for Friendship, Safe Water and Sanitation for All (Project 71), the United Nations, UNICEF, and UNESCO.

From Scotland? A project needs your help

The John Buchan Centre located at Broughton in Scotland, tells the story of the life and the work of John Buchan, First Lord Tweedsmuir. Miss Sheila Scott, secretary for the centre is looking for information for a Canadian exhibit at the centre. If any of you are descended from families who emigrated to Canada from Peeblesshire or the adjoining area around Biggar in Lanarkshire at any time up to the 1930's, Miss Scott would like to hear from you. She is interested in photographs, letters and other material you would lend for copying. The address is 43 Rosetta Road, Peelbes, Scotland EH45 8HH.

IYY supplies

For International Youth Year activities, the following items are available by writing to Diana Goldie, 99 Wellesley St. West, Room 1332, Whitney Block, Queen's Park, Toronto, M7A 1A2. Posters, buttons and activity guides are free while banners and flags are available on loan for free. Crests, to be used as awards in a youth competition, are available as well as logo artwork sheets which are free for use in newsletters or on letterhead or any other non-commercial use.

FWIC Convention Update

May Brown, public relation coordinator for the 1985 FWIC Convention, urges all Ontario Women's Institute members to extend a hand of fellowship and friendship to out-of-province guests. If you are attending the convention, registration kits will be given out upon arrival. Please read the contents carefully. Name tags must be worn at all times.

Who received bicentennial medals?

Information on Women's Institute members who received the Government of Ontario Bicentennial Medals last year has started to come to Home & Country. If you know of someone in your area who received a medal, please let the editor know so a complete list, honoring these recipients, can be printed.

Free catalogue

To receive your free 1985 mail order catalogue from the Lewiscraft company, write to Lewiscraft, 40 Commander Blvd., Scarborough, Ontario, M1S 3S2

Ontario pick-your-own list now available

For your free copy of the 1985 Pick-Your-Own list for Ontario fruit and vegetable farms and farmers' markets, please write to, Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food, Foodland Ontario, Legislative Buildings, Queen's Park, Toronto, M7A 1A6. You may call (416) 968-1760 or pick a copy up at your local agricultural office.

Tweedsmuir revisions

A motion to revise the 1973 Tweedsmuir Manual was passed by the Tweedsmuir History Committee in February. If you have a proposed revision or any ideas, please forward them to Mrs. Lulu Heales, provincial curator by Nov. 1, 1985. Her address is on page 2 of this issue of Home & Country.

