Money smarts

Chatelaine magazine featured a special supplement to its February 1987 issue called Money Smarts — A Woman's Guide to Financial Planning. If you missed the issue, extra copies of the supplement are available by writing to 777 Bay Street, Toronto, M5G 2E4, before Sept. 1, 1987.

Please take note

In 1985, the Home & Country Editorial Committee decided not to print photographs or long reports of anniversary celebrations, presentations of life memberships and certificates of merit, or birthdays. Since then, anniversaries etc. have been recognized in a sentence or two under the heading Congratulations. Please do not send in photographs or lengthy reports of your anniversaries etc. They will not be printed in Home & Country. They are important events locally and should be newsworthy in your local press, but provincially there are too many to cover with photos and long reports. Thank you for your co-operation.
