mation...information...information...information...information...information...information... information...information...information...information...information...information...

Dental care booklet - free

The Ontario Dental Association is offering a free booklet called The Consumer's Guide to Dental Care. The booklet covers topics like how to choose a dentist, how to keep your dental costs to a minimum, the important questions to ask at a dental check-up, advice for parents, and much more. Ask your Ontario Dental Association dentist for a copy, or write to Ontario Dental Association, Department B, Box 2310, Bramalea Station, Brampton, L6T 3Y9.

Info on federal gov't.

Looking for answers to your questions about federal government? A book called Citizen's Guide provides information on the most frequently asked questions by Canadians on a variety of subjects. Copies are available from Canada Service Bureau Program, Supply and Services Canada, Ottawa, K1A 0S5.

Quilt contest and sale

From June 27 to July 5, the Lambton Heritage Museum will be hosting its 7th annual Heritage Quilt Competition and Sale. Open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., this year's show will boast over 100 traditional and modern quilts, including those in the new competition category Quilting as a Fine Art. This competition is open to originally designed quilts or wallhangings.

The show also features films, demonstrations, a calico shop, and light lunches. For more information, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lambton Heritage Museum, R.R. #2, Grand Bend, NOM 1T0 or call (519) 243-2600.

Photos for Home & Country

When you are sending photos to be published in Home & Country, please remember the following:

- 1. Photos can be color or black and white, as long as they are in focus and
- 2. Do not send polaroid or instant
- 3. Be sure to clearly indicate who is in the photograph, from left to right, using their christian name and surname.
- 4. Please indicate to whom the photo should be returned.

Agri-Food Week

This year's Agri-Food Week will be held Oct. 5 to 12. Contact your local Ministry of Agriculture and Food office for the name of a liaison person in your area and watch for program ideas in the next issue of Home & Country.

Buy the Food Your Neighbor Grows

Child abuse info

The Ontario Ministry of Community and Social Services has a new booklet, available free, called Reporting Child Abuse - Your Responsibility Under Ontario's Child and Family Services Act. The booklet is available in English and French and may be obtained by writing to Communications Branch, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Hepburn Block, 7th Floor, Queen's Park, Toronto, M7A 1E9.

Farm films

The Farm Safety Association has a film library of over 90 titles covering almost every aspect of farm safety and health. All the films are available on loan. For more information, write to Farm Safety Association, Unit 22, 340 Woodlawn Rd., West, Guelph, Ont., N1H 7K6.

New address for FWIC

Federated Women's Institutes of Canada (FWIC) have moved, as of March 30 to Suite 606, 251 Bank Street, Ottawa, K2P 1X3. The phone number remains the same at 613 234-1090.

Congratulations

Congratulations to the following Women's Institute branches on their anniversaries:

Kent Centre WI, Kent West - 40th Caledonia WI, Haldimand — 60th Richan WI, Kenora - 60th Copetown WI, Wentworth North

65th

Burnstown WI, Renfrew South - 75th Iroquois WI, Dundas - 75th Thornyhurst WI, Lambton South

- 75th

Big Lake WI, Manitoulin East — 80th

The following life memberships were awarded recently: Heather Inksetter, Annetta Roberts and Katie Nixon. Copetown WI.

Alice Darlington, Evelyn Summerfeldt and Bernice Cook, Edgeley WI. Elsie Bell and Doris Muirhead of Alfred Watt Memorial WI received certificates of merit.

Iva Laviolette of Calabogie WI was honored for 25 years as a member of the branch.