Front Cover

The first ever National Agriculture in the Classroom Conference was held at the University of Western Ontario, London in April. Participants represented various governments, educational institutions and interested organizations. Our front cover photos, taken by OMAF photographer Ken Barton, depict some of what went on at the conference. In the upper left corner, FWIO President Margaret Munro (seated right) talks with other delegates. Next, Doug Reycraft, parliamentary assistant to Ontario Education Minister Sean Conway; federal agriculture minister John Wise; and Saskatchewan Minister of Education Lorne Hepworth ready to address participants. And in the lower right, participants view one of the many displays. For more photos and stories, turn to page 6.
