

HOME & Country

A Magazine for Rural Women

Home & Country is a publication for rural women's groups in Ontario. It is published by the Rural Organizations and Services Branch of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food. Home & Country has two objectives:

1. to provide a communications link between rural women's groups in Ontario
2. to provide educational material relating to organizational and individual leadership development.

Front Cover

1988 is the centennial of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food. The ministry's affiliation with rural women's groups, particularly the Women's Institutes, stretches back into those past 100 years. Our front cover photos are from historic files kept by the ministry's Communications Branch. They represent a few of the activities/programs the ministry has offered rural women in the past. Clockwise from the top right, the photos depict a dress fitting workshop in 1954; a millinery and clothing short course in 1922-23; a visit to Queen's Park by the Halton participants of a short course in 1926; and a short course on leather work in 1947.
