FWIO handbook

The second printing of the FWIO Constitution (handbook), with slightly larger print, will be available in mid-1988 from the FWIO office. Future orders will be $5, plus postage.

Home & Country evaluation

Joyce Canning, rural women's coordinator with the Rural Organizations and Services Branch, is on educational leave from Feb. 1 to May 1, carrying out research for her masters thesis.

Her topic is the evaluation of Home & Country magazine. We urge all readers to be cooperative if they are contacted by mail or phone, in order that the data collected will be truly representative of the readers across Ontario.

Free booklet may be timely for you...

The Canadian Bankers' Association has two free booklets you may wish to send for. One, called Credit Wise, tells you how to decide when you should and shouldn't use credit, as well as how to build a good credit record, how to apply for a loan, and forms to help plan your budget.

Another is called Steps to Retirement — Planning Now for Your Financial Future. It covers assessment of your lifestyle, estimating your needs upon retirement, investments and government pensions.

For your copy of either booklet, write to The Canadian Bankers' Association, P. O. Box 348, 2 First Canadian Place, Toronto, M5X 1E1. Please allow four weeks for delivery.

Hoodless book

FWIO still has some consigned copies of the book Adelaide Hoodless — Domestic Crusader for sale at $9.95 plus postage. The books are available from Rena Cunningham, R. R. #1, Consecon, K0K 1T0 613 969-8052.

FWIO tea towels

FWIO tea towels have been re-ordered and can be purchased from the FWIO office for $5 each.

Book for IPM

Make, Bake, Create, is a book compiled as a fundraising project by the three WI districts in Perth County. Organizers hope the book will promote the ladies program and WI activity at the International Plowing Match, to be held in Perth in 1988. The books can be bought for $7 from any Perth County WI member or at the Family Fare test during the IPM.
