

Series of health books from Y

The Winnipeg YM/YWCA has recently released a series of five books, published for the layperson on breast cancer. Book One serves as an introduction to the topic; Book Two discusses diagnosis and treatment; Book Three deals with recovery; Book Four contains interviews with women who have had breast cancer; and Book Five is a glossary and resource listing.

The set of five costs $20 or individual books may be bought for $5 each. Write to YM/YWCA of Winnipeg, 100-290 Vaughan St., Winnipeg, R3B 2N8 or call 204-943-0381.

Bruce craft fair

The 20th annual Bruce Centre Women's Institute Craft and Hobby Fair will be held July 5 at the Southamptton Coliseum from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Over 170 craftsmen will be present. Meals will be served. There will be door prizes and a quilt draw. Plan to attend.

Ag Canada report

A report called Growing Together--A Vision for Canada's Agri-Food Industry is now available from the Communications Branch, Agriculture Canada, Ottawa, K1A 0C7.

Concert supports Butler Project

An evening of classical music, featuring Sandor Szabo, was held in April. Proceeds from the concert went towards the Butler Project.

The Butler Project Committee is still working towards its goal of putting a resource kit of livestock prints with bilingual information in every school in Ontario.

Completion of this project was anticipated by fall of 1990, but funds are still needed for the packaging of the kits. Donations may be sent to the Royal Bank, Thamesford, N0M 2M0.

What's for lunch?

A new video called What's For Lunch? Feeding Young School Age Children is now available from the Federated Women's Institute of Ontario (FWIO) office or the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food (OMAF) audio visual library at the University of Guelph. It is VHS and 30 minutes long. Please book well in advance. Borrowers are responsible for the return shipment fee.

A good idea!

Begin at home with the resolution passed at the FWIO annual conference and stop the use of styrofoam. Approach your local township office, and if they are using disposable styrofoam cups, donate WI mugs in their place.

New for the future

The University of Guelph is offering a new continuing education course--5,000 Days: Environmental Perspectives and Human Choices. The course was developed to provide participants with a new perspective on our relationship with the environment. Call 519-824-4120, ext. 3956 for more information.

New pins

The new FWIO 25-year pins are now available. They are $5, and are similar in design to the 50 and 60-year pins, but in silver. Order from the FWIO office, P.O. Box 1030, Guelph, N1H 6N1.

Hoodless Homestead happenings

There will be a garden party at the Adelaide Hoodless Homestead on June 24 from 1 to 5 p.m. The home's Christmas Open House will be on Dec. 2 also from 1 to 5 p.m. For more information, contact curator Sue Doiron, St. George, N0B 5T5 or call 519-448-1130.

Subscribe to Federated News

Just six per cent of Women's Institute members across Canada subscribe to Federated News, the publication of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada.

Federated News tells members not only what happens provincially, but also what the ongoing projects of the national body are and what the priorities for each year include.

To subscribe, send $2.50 for four issues delivered to your home to: FWIC, Suite 606, 251 Bank St., Ottawa, K2P 1X3.

New leadership newsletter

The Rural Organizations and Services Branch of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food is piloting a new French language newsletter in eastern Ontario.

Destination Succes will feature leadership development information and available resources in French, as well as idea sharing from francophone rural organizations.

If you know of anyone who would be interested in receiving this publication, please suggest they write to Destination Succes, P.O. Box 1030, Guelph, N1H 6N1. The publication is free.

