Correction

In the July, August, September issue of the Home & Country I incorrectly stated that "the living will is now law." The living will is not yet law, but looks as if it will become law under a larger Health Act.

Promoting the WI

Promoting the Women's Institute at a Lifestyles Fair in Owen Sound was on the agenda of the Grey County Institute. Pictured above is Donna Coleman, Secretary of St. Vincent WI in Meaford, answering questions from just one of the many interested visitors.
