July 8, 15, 29, 2006

"Help Us Build Old Stoney Creek"

The Erland Lee Museum will be hosting a series of workbees on Saturday afternoons in July and August. Children and adults alike are invited to assist with the construction of the museum's 1910 model of Stoney Creek. Younger children can assist with the painting of scenery and miniatures. Older children and adults can work to craft a 1:87 scale model of one of Stoney Creek's historical sites along King Street and Highway #8. Successfully completed works will become part of the museum's permanent model.

Sessions start at 12:30 pm and run until 3:30 pm Saturday July 8, 15, 29. Materials are provided, but enthusiasts are welcome to bring their own painting supplies. Age range: 8 and up. $2.00 per participant per session. Pre registration by 4:00 pm the Thursday before each session (July 6, 13, 27) is required.
