Erland Lee Museum Upcoming Events Hamilton Heritage Day activities February 18, 2006

Join us at Hamilton City Hall for heritage entertainment, a marketplace, old video, and the Hamilton Heritage Volunteer Awards. Two dedicated museum Committee members, Marilyn Sharp and Swadesh Sachdeva, will be receiving citations from the Mayor of Hamilton.

Note that the museum will be closed on this day.

February 25, 2006 - Heritage Week talk: "By the Banks of the old Stoney Creek"

1:00 pm- free admission

Curator Michael Gemmell discusses the vibrant history along the banks of the creek that gives the community its name. What was, what is, and what remains will be revealed in a slide show and short talk. Visitors are invited to bring their own memories and especially photos of "the Creek". Discussion and refreshments to follow.

March Break - Teddy-bear making workshops- March 13, 15, and 17, 2006.

11 am - 2 pm.

Includes museum tour and a light snack. Price TBD.

March 25, 2006 - Pancakes and Maple Syrup... the heritage of the Lee sugar bush

Enjoy pancakes, sausage, and maple syrup from the old Lee sugar bush. Explore the heritage of one of Stoney Creek's famous families and how they tapped a taste sensation and made a market. There will be joint programs with the bush and the museum.
