North Grey Women's Institute Is Hard at Work

Members of the North Grey Women's Institute work hard at fundraising and donating to various causes in their community. In the past year this group has made numerous donations:

- $25 each to the North Grey Plowmen's Association and the Alzheimer's Coffee Break Fund
- $50 to the CFOS/Sun Times Christmas Fund Broadcast to go to local charities
- three $100 scholarship awards to secondary schools
- $200 each to the Grey Roots – Your Heritage and Visitors Centre and the Bothwell Corner's 4-H Club
- $450 to St. John Ambulance House
- $700 to the MRI Fundraising Campaign at Grey Bruce Health Services.

In addition, this Branch has made numerous bereavement donations to various local organizations and has provided gift bags with personal articles to the Second Ave. Lodge and the Women's Crisis Centre in Owen Sound.

The 20-member Branch raises funds primarily through catering events. The Branch matched a donation received by charter member Elaine Catto (left) from her employer for her volunteerism. Along with Branch President Linda Tottenham (right), Elaine presented the cheque to Grey Bruce Health Services MRI Campaign representative Paul Weitendorf.
