

Kenora District WI

The Kenora District Education Committee – involving Barclay, Oxdrift and New Prospect Women's Institutes – chose "Mental Health" as the topic of their ROSE Session attended by 40 people. Geriatric Mental Health Therapist Natalie Legros was the guest speaker. The group advertised via posters, radio announcements and the local country calendar website. The fee to attend was $3, with the pre-sale of tickets and some sold at the door. Ms. Legros gave an overview of the District's Older Adults Program and showed how the Kenora-Rainy River District Psychogeriatric Service Delivery Framework is connected. She explained the complexities of aging and reviewed some of the more common mental illnesses, such as schizophrenia, anxiety disorders, depression and manic depression.

A Banner Year for the Ingleside WI
