100 Years to Celebrate!

Perth South District WI

Two hundred members, spouses and guests attended the 100th anniversary of Perth South District Women's Institute at the Mitchell and District Community Centre last spring. The ten Branches in the District and the District Curators Brenda Marshall and Jean Copeland exhibited historical displays. Jeannie Coulthard (left), District President (1960-1962), Florence Pepler (centre), District Secretary-Treasurer (1965-1970), and Marlene Archer (right), District President (2000-2002) cut the anniversary cake. FWIO President Dianne Orr and a number of local dignitaries brought greetings and congratulations were received from Prime Minister Jean Chretien and several other key federal and provincial figures.

Camilla WI, Dufferin South

An important day was recognized in June at the Town of Mono Community Centre when Camilla WI celebrated 100 years of success with close to 100 guests in attendance. In honour of this achievement, Camilla members planted the Women's Institute Rose in their private gardens and two bushes in the Town of

Chesterville WI, Dundas

The Chesterville Women's Institute celebrated their 100th anniversary by hosting a tea in the local Legion Hall. Nearly 200 guests attended, each receiving a bookmark with the Institute Grace printed on it. Congratulations were received from Her Majesty The Queen, MP Bob Kilger, Mayor Claude Cousineau, local Councillor Roger Cole, and a number of other local and provincial dignitaries. Faith Nelms, representing the FWIO Provincial President Dianne Orr, presented Branch members with 100 Year Anniversary Pins. Members are shown above with their Branch banner.
