

Trent Valley Area WI

Trent Valley members held Denim Vest Workshops last spring under the instruction of Ruth Laking and Jenna Smith from Wellington South District. You will remember the "Rippers, Strippers and Patchers" article from the Fall 2000 Home & Country. About three dozen women participated in the Trent Valley workshops and donated their vests to the sales table at the ACWW Conference in June.

Submitted by Joyce Brown, PRO, Trent Valley Area WI.

Prince WI, Algoma Centre

Prince Women's Institute members are busy making hats for cancer patients, just one of the many projects undertaken by the group.

Submitted by Lucy Konkin, Prince WI, Algoma Centre.

Williamsburg WI, Dundas

Members of the Williamsburg Women's Institute are shown packing old programs for inclusion in the ACWW Conference bags given to delegates this past June. Pictured from left to right are Ruth Algire, Nettie Locke (seated), Isobel Williams and Jean Casselman.

Submitted by Ruth Algire, Williamsburg WI, Dundas.

Prince Edward District WI

This District showed its support for the Prince Edward County Memorial Hospital with a "Purple Ribbon" Campaign. From left to right are Peggy Burris, Pamela Littlefair, Fay Wetherall and Claudette Terbrugge, who gathered at the Hillier Township Hall with other representatives from the District's Branches to assemble 1,000 purple ribbons. The ribbons sold for $2 each with the profit going to the Hospital.

Submitted by Joyce Brown, PRO, Prince Edward District.

Chapman WI, Hastings East

Members of the Chapman Women's Institute contributed numerous items to sell at the Display and Sales Table at the ACWW Conference in June in Hamilton. From left to right are members Cecelia Maines, Dorothy Fisher and Louise Wannamaker.

Submitted by Jean Thompson, PRO, Chapman WI, Hastings East.

Maple Ridge WI, Lennox & Addington

This past July the Maple Ridge Women's Institute in Napanee enjoyed a Potluck Luncheon with the Chapman Branch from Tweed. The lunch took place at the newly constructed Grand Pavilion at the Quinte Conservation Park in Napanee. Maple Ridge member Marg Everett (second from left in front) sat on the Greater Napanee Millennium Committee and was instrumental in the planning of this Legacy Project. After lunch the group viewed a display of early tea wares at the Lennox and Addington County Museum and completed the day with a Scottish Cream Tea at the historic Macpherson House.

Submitted by Margaret Winter, PRO, Maple Ridge WI, Lennox & Addington.

Severn Bridge WI, Simcoe East

Severn Bridge WI members created an array of "Cuddle Quilts" to present to residents of nursing homes and to police departments to use with children who have been involved in car accidents or for other emergency calls. The group meets once a month to construct the quilts.

Submitted by Isabell McTaggart, Secretary-Treasurer, Severn Bridge WI, Simcoe East.

Do your best — angels can do no more.