Winner of Watercolour Draw

Anne McGugan of Alvinston, Ontario, is the winner of "Springtime in Ontario." The framed watercolour, donated by Rosella Clancy from River Valley WI, earned $2792 to help defray the costs of ACWW Conference 2001.

Hospitality Homes

Are you planning a vacation? Remember, Hospitality Homes in Ontario are open to all Women's Institute members and their travelling companions for $10 per night per person. To obtain a list of the Homes, send three 46 cent stamps to Gillian Catto, Hospitality Homes Coordinator, at Box 16, Site 14, RR 1, Whitefish ON P0M 3E0, (705)866-0253.

Please Take Note

Due to space constraints the Donations List and part of the Congratulations Column are not included. They will appear in the next issue.

Wanted - Quilt Blocks

The Display and Sales Committee believe that quilt blocks and patterns would be a good saleable item for the sales table at ACWW Conference 2001. Any member wishing to donate a quilt block, with the pattern included, please send it to Donna Russett at RR 3, Stirling ON K0K 3E0. Proceeds will go toward Conference 2001 expenses.

Note: Don't get this confused with the ACWW International Quilt Block Competition on page 8 of the Fall 1999 issue of Home & Country.

FWIO Mailbag:

To the Women's Institutes of Ontario:

On behalf of ACWW I would like to congratulate all the members in Ontario for their very generous donations to the ACWW funds. It indicates the level of interest, support and commitment from the members for our global families and communities.

Without this kind of support we would not be able to support our aims and objectives. The innovative ideas which are used to collect this money ... never cease to amaze me. ... The following is the breakdown for 1999:

- 70th Anniversary: $505.35
 - Women Feed the World: $2874.47
 - Water For All: $740.55
 - Iodine Deficiency Project: $1166.27
 - Pennies for Friendship: $49418.41
- What a marvellous and generous donation. A big thank you to each and everyone.
Margaret Munro, ACWW Treasurer

Ontario South Celebrates 100 Years

Ontario South District Women's Institute celebrated their 100th anniversary in May. The Shirley WI hosted the event at the Scugog Island Hall. Scugog Mayor Doug Moffatt presented a plaque from the Township. FWIO President Arthena Hecker (centre) and Central Ontario Area President Joan Folkard and Secretary Wilma Young were honoured guests. District President Joyce Kelly and Secretary Muriel Wotten chaired the program and festivities. Musical entertainment was supplied by "Just Friends."

Submitted by Muriel Wotten, Secretary, Ontario South District.
